thirty to start with, for a calm moment

- [ ] 1 When did you last feel anxious? Where were you and what was happening?
- [ ] 2 Where in your body do you feel worry first?
- [ ] 3 Write down the worry that is loudest right now, exactly as it sounds.
- [ ] 4 List ten things that have helped you feel steadier, big or small.
- [ ] 5 What would you do with your day if worry were quieter?
- [ ] 6 What are the first signs, in your body or your thoughts, that worry is building?
- [ ] 7 What does your breathing do when you are anxious? Notice it now.
- [ ] 8 What is the evidence that it will happen? What is the evidence that it will not?
- [ ] 9 Who can you contact when you need to talk? Write their names here.
- [ ] 10 What are you looking forward to this month?
- [ ] 11 Which times of day tend to feel heavier, and which feel lighter?
- [ ] 12 Which kind of movement leaves you feeling clearer afterwards?
- [ ] 13 What is the worst that could happen, the best, and the most likely?
- [ ] 14 What words help you when you are struggling? Write them so you can find them.
- [ ] 15 Which goal matters enough to feel nervous about?
- [ ] 16 List the situations that most often set off worry for you.
- [ ] 17 What does your body feel like on a calm day? Describe it so you can find it again.
